

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1918

HOW THINGS CHANGE

A few short years ago the Republicans and republican leaders about town were saying all kinds of ugly things about Roosevelt. Now they can't say too many good things about Teddy. The editorial columns of the Republican then and the editorial columns now would show an interesting contrast. About all Roosevelt has done for several years is to wage a propaganda against Wilson, and this may account for his popularity with local republican politicians and the Republican.

When the Nashville Banner gave its valuable support to Hooper, that paper was the law and gospel with local republicans. Now many of them have cut the paper and are taking the Globe-Democrat in its place. What is the trouble? The Banner is heartily supporting Wilson and his war measures, and had the nerve to say that the president should have a congress in sympathy with him.

The Democrat is no great admirer of Teddy, but realizing that he made possible the election of Wilson the first time, and put the republican party out of business for a while at least, make us feel kindly toward him, and we think we see in him some help in keeping the republican party from gaining power in the next election.

Haig, Pershing and Diaz make a shining trinity, but Marshal Foch must head the quartette. Lloyd-George! What a splendid name for Old England to enshrine. Clemenceau, the big brain of the French republic, and Premier Orlando, to whom Italy must ever bow. These are the names of the mighty actors that must stand sunlit on all the pages of the future, but over every gun and above every uplifted sword we must write, the world will write, plain, unadorned Woodrow Wilson, the supremest thought, the most skillful premier of the world. His was a matchless task, but how grandly, nobly done!—W. H. Bumpous in Tennessee Mason.

State politics will liven up after the holidays. The state legislature convenes the first Monday in January. The organization of that body and the election of the state officers will attract some attention. It is already claimed that Governor-elect Roberts has endorsed Andrew Todd, of Murfreesboro, and Seth Walker, of Lebanon, for speakership; John Thomason, of Memphis, for re-election as comptroller, and Hill McAlister, of Nashville, for state treasurer. There is talk of organizing to rebel against the action of the governor in naming a slate. Porter Duplap is a candidate for re-election as treasurer and Mr. Kinney, of Brownsville, is opposing Thomason.

The war cost our country many billions of dollars. The generosity of our people has been amazing. Yet we are not asking that a cent of it be returned. We want no indemnities no reparations, no territory, and by the eternal, we are going to see to it that the peace table does not degenerate into any grab game. Germany must pay, but to those to whom payment is justly due, and so as to leave no Alsace-Lorraine aftertaste in anybody's mouth.—Nashville Banner.

The suggestion of a Kentuckian as to what to do with the ex-kaiser is worthy of reproduction: "Put him," says the Blue Grass sage, "in an iron cage in the jungles of Africa with Teddy Roosevelt as his companion. Let them be well cared for, that they both live long. The kaiser's penalty will be to listen to speeches from Teddy ten hours a day. Such a program would be heaven for Teddy, h—l for the kaiser, and peace for the balance of the world."—Ex.

Some of the politicians are finding serious fault with President Wilson these days. One Washington correspondent tells of seven capital mistakes he has made. This reminds us that a man by the name of Bob Ingersoll once lectured on the mistakes of Moses.—Covington Leader.

Ready For Drive

A special from McKenzie says: W. R. Gilbert, a well-known business man of this place, has been named as chapter chairman for the Red Cross Christmas Roll call drive, with the following assistant: Chairman of speakers' bureau, Rev. A. R. McGehee, pastor of the Baptist Church; publicity chairman, D. A. Burkhalter, editor of the McKenzie Banner, masque chairman, Mrs. C. W. Covington. Committees have been named and work will begin on time, with speaking dates over the school districts of the chapter's jurisdiction.

We do Commercial Printing.

Lankford School

Herron Blaylock has the flu. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hilliard have purchased a piano. Miss Susan Wilder is visiting friends in our community. Next Sunday will be Rev. McCoy's regular appointment. Little Miss Vadenaurine Rucker is better, after a short spell of sickness.

Mrs. Ella Kemp paid Mrs. Velma Rucker a short visit Sunday afternoon.

Misses Lucile Lankford and Catherine Blaylock are able to be in school again.

Mrs. Minnie Manley was a pleasant visitor at L. H. S. while there she delivered two interesting readings. Her son, Frank, remained in school.

Nye Hurt, of near Huntingdon, has entered Lankford school, also Miss Ena Cook, of Lavinia, and Misses Susan and Evelyn Patterson, of Christmasville.

Fred Woods was hurt very badly one day last week while playing. He and another playmate ran together. The doctor was called, but found no bones broken. He was able to be present next day.

A number of patrons were present Friday afternoon, also Prof. D. T. Barnhill, C. H. Moody and Miss Vivian Hawkins. Following was the program rendered:

Song by Congregation
Welcome Address . . . Prof. E. B. Rucker
Response Rev. Robinson
Report of Primary Work . . Mrs. Ella Kemp
Report of Entertainment Work
 Miss Oda Wiley
Report of Higher Grades . . Prof. E. B. Rucker
Song by Faculty
"Should Parents Visit the School, and Why?" Mrs. Pattie Hilliard
"Value of Instrumental Music"

Play "A Cry for a Morsel of Bread From Europe."

After the play Prof. Barnhill, Mr. Moody and Miss Hawkins made short, spicy talks. Adopting a French orphan was then discussed and the school has decided to care for an orphan.

Red Cross Speaking

It is with pleasure we announce to the public that Hon. Herbert V. Carson, Director of Speakers for Southern Division American Red Cross, has wired us that he will send us the great Red Cross Lecturer, Mr. Cranz, to speak for us on Sunday December 15th. So the speaking will be at the Court House Huntingdon, Tennessee December 15th, 7 p. m. Let every one come!

C. C. HINES,
Chairman Speakers Committee
Red Cross.

J. C. Wilder has sold his mill property to J. A. Conyers. The consideration was $3,000.

Mrs Fleetwood Ball

Mrs. Flossie M. Ball, aged 26, wife of Rev. Fleetwood Ball, pastor for 17 years of the First Baptist church of Lexington, died Sunday night at 11:45 o'clock, after an illness of ten days of bronchial pneumonia, following influenza. She was a conspicuous figure in the church and social circles of the town and a young woman of broad charities, causing her to be universally popular. She is survived by her husband, four daughters, the youngest being an infant eight days old, and hosts of other relatives. Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the auditorium of the First Baptist church by Rev. Martin Ball of Clarkdale, Miss., assisted by Rev. C. E. Azbill.

A Texas Wonder.

The Texas wonder cures kidney and bladder trouble, removes gravel, cures diabetes, weak and lame back, rheumatism, and all irregularity of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist will be sent by mail on receipt of $1.00. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Send for Tennessee testimonials, Dr. E. W. Hall, 2926, Olive street, St. Louis Mo. Sold by all druggists.

Insolvent Notice

Having suggested the insolvency of the estate of B. A. Jones, deceased, to the clerk of the county court for Carroll County, Tennessee, this is to notify all parties holding claims against said estate to file the same with the county court clerk of Carroll County, Tennessee, duly proven, as required by law, on or before the first day of March, 1919, or the same will be barred in law. This November 19, 1918. E. L. JONES, Administrator. JNO. T. PEELER, Attorney. 45-4t

Non-Resident Notice

O. A. Kennedy et al.
vs.
Lucile Agnew et al.
In the County Court for Carroll County, Tennessee.

In this cause, it appearing from the bill which is sworn to, that defendant, Adria Roberts, is a non-resident of Tennessee, and a resident of Texas, and that Bossie Roberts is a non-resident of Tennessee, and a resident of Oklahoma, and that Maud Roberts is a non-resident of Tennessee, and a resident of Missouri, and that the residence of Andrew Duke is unknown and cannot be ascertained after diligent inquiry, they and each of them are hereby commanded to appear on the fourth Monday, the 30th day of December, 1918, before the clerk of said Court, at his office in Huntingdon, and make defense to the bill filed against them in said Court by O. A. Kennedy, et al., or otherwise the bill will be taken for confessed as to them, and the cause set for hearing ex parte.

It is further ordered that this notice be published for four consecutive weeks in the Carroll County Democrat. This November 19, 1918. J. W. JARRETT, Clerk. GEORGE T. MURPHY, 45-4t Solicitor for Compls.

Non-Resident Notice

B. N. Johnson
vs.
Audrey Hathaway et al
In the County Court of Carroll County, Tennessee. In this cause, it appearing from DECEMBER SALE!

If you want to have more money for your Christmas spending, you will find it will go farther by trading and doing your Christmas shopping with

DODSON---CARTER CO.

We herewith give you a few of our bargain prices:

Men's Blue Serge Suits, $35.00 value, reduced in the December Sale to	$22.50
Men's Blue Serge Suits, $30.00 value, reduced in the December Sale to	20.00
Men's Cassimer Suits, $25.00 value, reduced in the December Sale to	18.00
Men's Cassimer Suits, $18.00 value, reduced in the December Sale to	15.00
Boys' Clothing $10.00 to $12.00 value, reduced in the December Sale to	8.00
Boys' Cordoroy $10.00 value, reduced in the December Sale to	7.00

Overcoats for Men and Boys---Cheap

Ten dozen Best Quality Overalls, $3.00 value, reduced in the December Sale to	$2.50
Ten dozen Best Quality Youths Overalls, $2.00 value, reduced in the December Sale to	1.50

Outing Flannel, 35c quality, reduced to 25c

Big line of Ladies', Misses', Men's and Boys' Sweaters Christmas gifts for everybody and at reasonable prices. If you fail to give us a look you are losing money the allegations of complainant's bill, which is sworn to, that defendants, Audrey Hathaway and husband, — Hathaway, Gracie Stones, or Stonns, and husband, — Stones, or Stonns, Vivian Rush, Brooksie McGuire and husband, — McGuire, Richard Rush, Vernie Rush, are non-residents of Tennessee, and residents of Missouri, and that defendant, Bessie Rush, is a non-resident of Tennessee and a resident of Illinois, and that defendant, Elbert Rush, is a non-resident of Tennessee and a resident of Iowa, and that defendants, Beatrice Rush, Clarence Rush and W. R. Rush, are non-residents of Tennessee, and that their residences are unknown and cannot be ascertained after diligent inquiry, and that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon said non-residents, it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Carroll County Democrat, a newspaper published in Huntingdon, Tenn., for four consecutive weeks, commanding said non-resident defendants to appear before me at my office in Huntingdon, Tennessee, on or before the first Monday in January, 1919, and make defense to the bill filed against them in this cause, otherwise the allegations of said bill will be taken as confessed, and the cause set for hearing ex parte. This December 3, 1918.

Dodson-Carter Co.

J. W. JARRETT,
County Court Clerk,
J. W. MURPHY, 47-4t
Solicitor for Complainants.

Public Sale!

At my home, two miles east of Huntingdon, on the Memphis-to-Bristol Highway on

THURSDAY, DEC. 19, 1918

All my farming implements, one good milk cow, three years old; a number of chickens and household goods and other articles too numerous to mention.

Terms Made Known on Day of Sale

Mrs. F. B. Hammond

SAM HERR, Auctioneer